

THE MAGIC OF TINY BITS

Pixelles™ Trilobal Polyester Size 30

Tiny bits of color that join together to make up an image—what a wonderful definition for decorative machine stitches! No other medium quite conveys the imagery and magic of embellished designs. Whether it is a quilt, embroidery, or decorative accent, the splendid colors found in Signature's new Pixelles decorative thread will stitch images unlike any others. Slightly thicker than an all-purpose weight, Pixelles is a Size 30 trilobal polyester fiber and is dyed in one inch bits. The colors are vibrant and dreamy, bringing new opportunities in dimension, color, and texture to any project. Contrasting, blending, matching—the creative options are endless. Just thread up your needle and let the magic begin.
